

Suggested Packing List as Provided by Angie Salyers specifically for girls

- Sleeping bag & pillow (or twin size bedding)
- 6 pairs of Shorts (below the knee)
- 6 shirts (no sleeveless, one "theme" shirt - this year is fav sports team)
- 6 pairs of socks
- 6 undies
- Pajamas (however many your child needs for 6 nights)
- Bible (no electronic Bibles... must be a physical Bible)
- Shower shoes
- Toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, DEODORANT, contact case & solution, glasses & case, feminine products, face wash)
- Shower caddy to tote items to shower house
- Hair brush, hair ties & Detangler
- Towel & washrag/ pouf
- Beach towel & modest swim wear, swim suit coverup (if signed up for swimming)
- 2 pairs of tennis shoes (no sandals) we like an extra pair in case one gets wet
- We also pack an extra outfit usually. You know your child, so if they get extremely sweaty or need to change after getting wet then they may need additional outfits.
- Flashlight
- Sweatshirt for chilly nights
- Rain coat if calling for rain (think she needed it one time in 6 years)
- Water bottle
- Trash bag or laundry bag for dirty clothes
- Bug spray
- Sunscreen
- Sunglasses
- Razor
- Chapstick
- Lotion
- Hand Sanitizer
- Meds - labeled & turned into the nurse at check in
- Store money - turned in at check in
- Camp forms - signed & notarized - turned in at check-in (with payment if not already paid)

Other Helpful tips:

- Use a fine point sharpie to label items - write on tags or seams to avoid bleeding through
- For littles, I put their daily outfits in a gallon size ziploc bag (lay shorts on floor, place shirt, socks & undies on top, then roll & put in bag).
- Make sure their name is written in the front of their Bible & on their water bottle
